About Jilin University

Boasting of the largest enrolments, Study Mbbs in Jilin University is one of the top 10 universities in China offering exceptional education to students from around the world. Ever since its inception, the university has grown to become a spot of education excellence

In 2004, the then University of Military Logistics also came under the wings of Jilin University.

The university offers 13 distinct educational categories including philosophy, economics, engineering, law, science, education, literature and medicine.

It is the tradition of the university to make the academic and social lives of the international students comfortable, academically rewarding. The administrative and teaching staffs always ensure that the international students are able to study, conduct well at all times while in the university.

One of the main objectives of the university in offering MBBS to students—local and international—is to create a great brand of medical professionals who are of international standards in line with the guidelines and requirements of the World Health Organization.

Jilin University has exceptional academic infrastructure to facilitate high quality medical education seamlessly. The library of the university has 6.98 million volumes of books, which has been recognized by UNIDO, UNESCO and the World Bank. It is also one of the only seven “China Academic Library & Information System” centers in China.
