Hebei Medical University has over 7100 staff; of which there are 836 professors, chief physicians and senior researchers, 1350 associate professors among which are Indian, Nepalese and Bangladeshi faculties. As of now, there are nearly 25,600 students studying in this prestigious University, which has a long standing legacy of welcoming foreign students from all over the world; such as Japan, India, Nepal, Pakistan, Korea, Taiwan, Philippines and the USA among others. Currently the university has under its wings more than 400 international students; of which most of them have completed Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBBS) and successfully secured jobs in different hospitals in their respective home nations while some are doing their post-graduation in reputed international colleges. Thus, Hebei Medical University is instrumental in establishing a robust academic and professional foundation and serves to be the best place to do mbbs in china for indian students especially. Moreover, the MBBS program follows English medium.

The university has undergone evolution and developed rapidly over hundred years and successfully emerged as an all-inclusive medical university. It is touted to be the best medical university in china as it houses 14 colleges and 15 specialties that comprehensively focuses on dentistry, anesthesiology, western medicine, medical imaging, preventive medicine, pharmacology, advanced nursing science, pharmaceuticals and among others.

The university comprises 6 affiliated hospitals, which have nearly 4,566 beds for in-patients. Among these, 4 hospitals have been allowed the status of “first-class hospitals in the third category”.
